

School of Consilience

Global Korean Studies(Korean Studies in English)

Major :

- (1) Total Credits: Multiple major min. of 36 cr., Single major min. of 48 cr.
- (2) Required Courses
 - Multiple major : KOS2007, KOS2012, KOS3009, KOS3013 (total 12 cr.)
 - Single major : KOS2007, KOS2012, KOS3009, KOS3013, KOS4002 (total 15 cr.)
- (3) Multiple majors need min. of 24 cr. and single major min. of 33 cr. from Global Korean Studies major courses in addition to the above requirements.
 - Korean Language courses, KOS2001~KOS2006, are not admitted as major courses to Korean students.
 - Among Korean Language courses, KOS2001~KOS2006, 2 courses (6 cr.) are admitted as major courses to Foreign students.

Course Completion Roadmap

Acad. Year	1st Semester	Cr.	2nd Semester	Cr.
1	COR1001	2 cr.	COR1002	2 cr.
	COR1003	3 cr.	COR1004	3 cr.
	Select 1: ETS2001~ETS2004	3 cr.	Select 1: CHS2001~CHS2005	3 cr.
	Select 1: STS2001~STS2008	3 cr.	Select 1: SHS2001~SHS2007	3 cr.
	LCS2001~LCS2006 (select 1 for 1-1 or 1-2)	3 cr.	LCS2001~LCS2006 (Select 1 for 1-1 or 1-2)	3 cr.
	others	3 cr.	others	2 cr.
	others	2 cr.	others	2 cr.
Total	19 cr.	Total	19 cr.
2	Select 1: HFS2001~HFS2005	3 cr.	others	19 cr.
	others	16 cr.
	Total	19 cr.
3	others	19 cr.	others	19 cr.
4	others	19 cr.	others	19 cr.

Notes : 1) "others" : major courses and general division electives
 2) Major courses in department of Global Korean Studies are basically run in English. Nevertheless, depended on subject, some courses are run in other languages.

- KOS2001 Elementary Korean 1 3 cr. Introductory course for Korean
(lect.: 3hr)
- Introductory course for Korean KOS2003 Intermediate Korean 1 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)
- KOS2002 Elementary Korean 2 3 cr. Intermediate course for Korean
(lect.: 3hr)

KOS2004 Intermediate Korean 2 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)
Intermediate course for Korean

KOS2005 Advanced Korean 1 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)
Advanced course for Korean

KOS2006 Advanced Korean 2 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)
Advanced course for Korean

KOS2007 Introductory Seminar in Korean 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)

This course introduces a survey of primary and secondary sources for the study of Korea. Students are expected to find out the primary sources and use secondary sources for studying related topics.

KOS2011 Writing in Korean Studies 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)

This course will offer an expository writing for students in Korean Studies.

KOS2012 The Study of Korea:
Sources 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)

A survey of primary and secondary sources for the study of Korea

KOS3001 An Introduction to Korea through Literature and Film 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)

This course will introduce students to a broad survey of Korean culture as it presented in Korean literature and film. Students will study general understanding of Korean culture and related theories.

KOS3002 Modern Korean Poetry 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)

An introduction to important 21st century Korean poets and poetic genres.

KOS3003 Modern Korean Fiction 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)

This course is to introduce important twentieth-century Korean fiction writers and fictional genres as well as basic knowledge which is essential to understanding Korean novels.

KOS3004 The Mediums of Korean Cultural Modernity 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)

One of the most important modern social institutions in the creation of modern mass culture was media. This course is to understand modern Korean mass culture through analysing media which have represented mass arts and cultural experiences of 20th century Korea.

KOS3009 Topics in Korea Today: 3 cr.
Politics, Economy, and Society
(lect.: 3hr)

This lecture deals with historical background and theoretical frame which need to understand Korean society. It will introduce the students to complex and diverse political, economical, social phenomena which Korean society confronts with, including industrialization, democratization, classification, polarization, tradition and modern, inter-Korean relations, local problem, sexuality, ideology, globalization and national problem and etc.

KOS3013 Introduction to Korean Literature 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)

This course provides a broad survey of Korean literary texts and genres, generating innovative new approaches toward the study of modern Korean literature. It will introduce comprehensive approach toward understanding the cultural-historical character of modern Korean literature.

KOS3014 Religion and Culture in Modern Peninsula 3 cr.
(lect.: 3hr)

This course will review the development of Korean religions and its effect to Korean culture.

KOS3015 International Politics of Korean Peninsula: Foreign and Inter-Korean Relations 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

North-East Asia is under massive changes, and is one of the most dynamic areas. North-East Asian area is one of the leading regions of 21century. Superpowers such as the United States, Japan, Russia and China have been closely interlinked since 19th century. Students will study various theories and approaches of international relations and testify them for applicabilities to the region in practice.

KOS3016 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

This course explores the characteristics of Korean corporations. In the age of globalization, studying Korean corporation will give an advantage to students who want to work Korean corporation in the future and understand Korean business culture more deeply.

KOS3017 Economic development and Social Change in Korea 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

This course offers an overview of the content and principles of rapid social change and various social movements in Korea in the context of economic development. Students will study social movements, democratization, and industrialization.

KOS3018 Elementary Korean 3 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

Introductory course for Korean

KOS3019 Intermediate Korean 3 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

Intermediate course for Korean

KOS3020 Korean Language and Culture-Beginner 1 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

The course aims at understanding the overall process and representation of Korean culture to improve Korean language ability. Keyword representing cultural phenomena will be reviewed including mass culture, religions, thoughts, world view, ways of living, and social institutions from tradition to contemporary time. The course includes material research, field trip, report, presentation, and discussion.

KOS3021 Korean Language and Culture-Beginner 2 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

The course aims at understanding the overall process and representation of Korean culture to improve Korean language ability. Keyword representing cultural phenomena will be reviewed including mass culture, religions, thoughts, world view, ways of living, and social institutions from tradition to contemporary time. The course includes material research, field trip, report, presentation, and discussion.

KOS3022 Korean Language and Culture-Beginner 3 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

The course aims at understanding the overall process and representation of Korean culture to improve Korean language ability. Keyword representing cultural phenomena will be reviewed including mass culture, religions, thoughts, world view, ways of living, and social institutions from tradition to contemporary time. The course includes material research, field trip, report, presentation, and discussion.

KOS3023 Korean Language and Culture-Intermediate 1 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

The course aims at understanding the overall process and representation of Korean culture to improve Korean language ability. Keyword representing cultural phenomena will be reviewed including mass culture, religions, thoughts, world view, ways of living, and social institutions from tradition to contemporary time. The course includes material research, field trip, report, presentation, and discussion.

KOS3024 Korean Language 3 cr.
and Culture-Intermediate 2

(lect.: 3hr)

The course aims at understanding the overall process and representation of Korean culture to improve Korean language ability. Keyword representing cultural phenomena will be reviewed including mass culture, religions, thoughts, world view, ways of living, and social institutions from tradition to contemporary time. The course includes material research, field trip, report, presentation, and discussion.

KOS3025 Korean Language 3
and Culture-Intermediate 3

(lect.: 3hr)

The course aims at understanding the overall process and representation of Korean culture to improve Korean language ability. Keyword representing cultural phenomena will be reviewed including mass culture, religions, thoughts, world view, ways of living, and social institutions from tradition to contemporary time. The course includes material research, field trip, report, presentation, and discussion.

KOS3026 Korean Language 3 cr.
and Culture-Advanced 1

(lect.: 3hr)

The course aims at understanding the overall process and representation of Korean culture to improve Korean language ability. Keyword representing cultural phenomena will be reviewed including mass culture, religions, thoughts, world view, ways of living, and social institutions from tradition to contemporary time. The course includes material research, field trip, report, presentation, and discussion.

KOS3027 Korean Language 3 cr.
and Culture-Advanced 2

(lect.: 3hr)

The course aims at understanding the overall process and representation of Korean culture to improve Korean language ability. Keyword representing cultural phenomena will be reviewed including mass culture, religions, thoughts, world view, ways of living, and social institutions from tradition to contemporary time. The course includes material research, field trip, report, presentation, and discussion.

KOS3030 The three big dragons: 3 cr.
Korea, Japan, and China

(lect.: 3hr)

This course focuses on the both differences and similarities of national developmental paths taken by Korea, China and Japan as these countries transformed into modern nation-states.

KOS3031 Korean Studies Seminar 1 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

Key topics that will contribute to enhancing research on Korea will be identified. For each topic, the course will offer an overview of existing research and adopt a synthetic approach toward exploring and understanding Korean society.

KOS3032 Korean Studies Seminar 2 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

Key topics that will contribute to enhancing research on Korea will be identified. For each topic, the course will offer an overview of existing research and adopt a synthetic approach toward exploring and understanding Korean society.

KOS3033 Korean Studies Seminar 3 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

Key topics that will contribute to enhancing research on Korea will be identified. For each topic, the course will offer an overview of existing research and adopt a synthetic approach toward exploring and understanding Korean society.

KOS3034 Korean Studies Seminar 4 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

Key topics that will contribute to enhancing research on Korea will be identified. For each topic, the course will offer an overview of existing research and adopt a synthetic approach toward exploring and understanding Korean society.

KOS3040 Modern World System and Korea 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

This course will examine Korea in the context of the modern world-system change and related theory. We will study the theory of modern world-system and its major changes that have marked world politics, economic order and social change. We also study East Asia's role in the global politico-economic order in the 21st century.

KOS3041 Korean Studies in Practice I 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

This course offers field practice to utilize knowledge accumulated from classroom and studies. It will contain diverse fields in Korean studies including academic, business, and social area.

KOS3042 Korean Studies in Practice II 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

This course offers field practice to utilize knowledge accumulated from classroom and studies. It will contain diverse fields in Korean studies including academic, business, and social area.

KOS3043 Modern Political History of Korea 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

This course focuses the opening period of Korea in the late nineteenth century when Choson intellectuals were exposed to western civilization and began to develop Korean modernity. It will help students understand the transformation of traditional Korea and the subsequent formation of modern Korea through the process of receiving and transforming western and Japanese cultures.

KOS3044 Contemporary Political History of Korea 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

Advanced course on contemporary Korean politics. It analyses major issues of post-colonial Korea- for example political events, political changes, industrial politics, and the relationship between industrialization and democratization etc. - in terms of political economy.

KOS4001 The Study of Korea: Methods 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

This course will offer an investigation of various disciplinary approaches to the study of Korea

KOS4002 Thesis Writing 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

Guided independent research for writing English thesis.

KOS4003 Textual Conditions in Modern Korea 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

This course will examine textual productions in twentieth-century Korea and relevant literary, bibliography, and book in its historical discourses.

KOS4005 Translated Korea 3 cr.

(lect.: 3hr)

The formation of modern knowledge in Korea was promoted by ceaseless efforts of medieval intellectuals to transform themselves on the one hand, and by introduction of modern knowledge from the West on the other by translation. This course examines translation in making modern knowledge. It explores translated modern, how translated words or concepts have been made, how it have affected Korea until now. It helps students develop their sense of value for translation.